

Membership Application Form

If you would like to become a member of the i care parenting library, please read and fill out the following details.

Becoming a member means that we will post out items to you (as per your request) as soon as they are available. We will supply an addressed envelope for you to return the items to us in, but you will need to take care of any postage costs for this. If it is more convenient, you are welcome to come in and borrow/return books personally.
